

POLITICAL PARTY:

“PAKISTAN
PROGRESSIVE
PARTY”

(Founded by MUHAMMAD SULTAN MUGHAL in 1990 and its ideology is Socialism, Populism, Welfarism, Social Justice, Civic Nationalism, Rights of Minorities)

FLAG:

ELECTION SYMBOL:

(EAGLE)

SLOGANS:

- Auqaab per mohar lagao, Pakistan ko pur-aman banao.
- Ab nahi to kab, Hum nahi to kon.
- *Dil-o-jaan say ik hi naara hai, Sultan hmara
sahaara hai*
- Hum ko manzil nahi, rahnuma chahiye.
- Sab ko dekha bari bari, ab ki bar hmaray Sultan ki bari.

1. MUHAMMAD SULTAN MUGHAL (LEADER):

Muhammad Sultan Mughal is the president of the Pakistan Progressive Party. He was born on 5th December 1949 in Lahore. Born into a well-to-do family in Lahore, he entered his family business upon his graduation. Already a successful businessman by the time he entered politics, he put his astute administrative sense to good use in his political career as well. He received his primary education from Saint Anthony High School after which he went to the Government College University (GCU) from where he graduated with a degree in art and business. He then enrolled at the Law College of Punjab University in Lahore and earned a law degree. He founded the Pakistan Progressive Party in 1990.

2. CHAUDHARY AZAM JAHANGIR (VICE PRESIDENT):

Azam Jahangir the vice president of Pakistan Progressive Party was born on 12 January 1960 in Multan, Punjab to a wealthy, political Muslim family. Azam Jahangir is fluent in Urdu, English, and Punjabi. Jahangir received his early education from Aitcheson College, Lahore. He did his bachelors from Forman Christian College and received MA (Law) and MA (History) degree from Corpus Christi College, Cambridge. He joined Pakistan Progressive Party in 2003 as he mentioned in the conference that this party is indispensable to any democratic system and plays the most crucial role in the electoral process.

3. SIKANDAR KHAN (CHAIRMAN):

Sikandar khan is appointed as a chairman of Pakistan Progressive Party. He was born in Sindh on 8th August, 1975. For early education, he attended Sindh Grammar School. For further studies, he followed in the footsteps of both his father and his grandfather and applied to Oxford University, where he was accepted to read Modern History and Politics at Christ Church, receiving his degree in Bachelor of Arts in 1999. He is proud to be elected as a chairman of Pakistan Progressive Party. He delivered speech on 23rd March, 2002 in which he said that he is a strong advocate of and quoted; peaceful, progressive, prosperous, democratic Pakistan” so he joined Pakistan Progressive Party because he is inspired by party’s agenda.

4. MIR ALI KHAN (SECRETARY GENERAL):

Mir Ali khan is the secretary general of Pakistan Progressive Party. He was born on 11th November, 1970 in Islamabad. He belongs to a well-known family of Islamabad. He received his primary education from government school. He had done his graduation from International Islamic University. Then he completed his degree in political science. He entered in politics in 1996 and joined Pakistan progressive party. He joined Pakistan Progressive Party because of two main reasons as he mentioned in the Assembly that this party aims to work for its poor people and their rights and is working whole heartedly for the progress of Pakistan.

5. AHMAD ALI SHAH (ASSISTANT GENERAL SECRETARY):

Ahmad Ali shah is the assistant secretary general of Pakistan Progressive Party. He was born on 6th November, 1969 in Rawalpindi, Punjab. He received his early education in from Polytechnic College and graduated from Government Gordon College. He completed his Bachelor of Laws at the University of Punjab. Ahmed was a leader of the student union at Gordon College. He joined Pakistan Progressive Party in 2004. He is greatly inspired by this party's agenda in order to promote regional peace and to strengthen state institutions to promote democracy and complete political, economic and religious freedom for the people.

6. SHERAZ MIRZA (SPOKESMAN):

Sheraz Mirza is the spokesperson of the Pakistan Progressive Party. He was born in Dina, Punjab on 6th September, 1984. He is a lawyer by profession, and worked as a political analyst and an anchor for several media organizations. He attended Government College Lahore and went abroad to pursue higher studies and came back to Pakistan with Barrister degree. Sheraz's family has strong political credentials and has played a very significant role in local as well as national politics. He joined the Pakistan Progressive Party to support its agenda. The party historically supported social conservatism, in recent years, the party's political ideology and platform has become more liberal on social and cultural issues.

7. SHEHZAD WASEEM (LEADER IN SENATE):

Shehzad Waseem is the leader of senate of Pakistan Progressive Party. He was born on 1st February, 1980 in Kotli, Kashmir. His earlier education is from St. Patrick's High School. He has done his bachelors and MA on International Relations. He joined Pakistan Progressive Party in 2007. He joined this party to due to party's strong ideology or agenda as to solve the national and social issues of Pakistan. He promote national cohesion and harmony and to alleviate fears of the smaller provinces regarding domination by any one province because of its majority in the National Assembly.

LEADER'S SPEECH (PARTY'S AGENDA):

- Establish Pakistan as a truly independent and sovereign state that becomes a source of pride for our people.
- Strengthen state institutions to promote democracy and complete political, economic and religious freedom for the people.
- Provide an accountable and efficient government that ensures the protection of life and property of its citizens.
- Launch an Education Revolution to promote universal literacy and raise the standard of education in our schools, colleges and universities.
- Ensure the availability of adequate Healthcare services for all citizens.
- Highest priority to poverty alleviation through policies aimed at creating more job opportunities and enabling ownership of assets to the poor.
- A merit based system that provides equal opportunity for employment and upward social mobility for all, specially the working classes
- Create an environment which encourages the private sector to grow and create greater wealth and employment opportunities.
- End the VIP culture by setting an example in simple living and an austere lifestyle.
- Eliminate draconian laws that give unchecked power to Police and the Agencies or which limit the rights of Citizens.
- A self reliant economy which is free of dependence on foreign aid.
- Promote regional peace and strengthen our relationships with friendly countries.

